FAEGRE BAKER DANIELS

FaegreBD.com

Navigating the 2013 Annual Report and Proxy Season

January 8, 2013 | Minneapolis, MN

Participants will be eligible for up to 2 CPE credits (1 Regulatory Ethics Credit and 1 Business Law Credit).

We are required to provide the following information to candidates for CPE credit, in addition to the information in our promotional materials:

Intended Learning Objectives:

- Learn about recent developments on executive compensation litigation and lawsuits seeking annual meeting injunctions
- Receive suggestions for complying with the new compensation consultant independence disclosure rules and preparing for additional stock exchange rulemaking
- Become informed about recent changes to ISS and Glass Lewis voting policies
- Learn about best practices on risk factors, forward-looking statements and earnings guidance
- Learn about trends in shareholder activism, including shareholder proposals
- Become informed about the state of Dodd-Frank rulemaking, including issued rules on conflict mineral disclosures
- Receive training on current corporate governance developments
- Receive useful examples of disclosure
- Receive helpful checklists

Program Level: Intermediate

Prerequisites: Working knowledge of proxy disclosure requirements

Advanced Preparation: None

Delivery Method: Group – Live

For more information regarding refund, complaint and/or program cancellation policies, please contact our offices at 612-766-7000.

Faegre Baker Daniels LLP is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.learningmarket.org.