Advising on Transactions Across the Private Equity Deal Market

Faegre Drinker's worldwide private equity team has the experience to deliver success in large, sophisticated transactions — with the agility and rate structure to equally excel in smaller transactions.

We know the private equity deal market. With extensive experience on both the buy-side and sell-side, we apply the latest structures, strategies and practices for your private equity deals.

We deliver value in advising sponsors, funds, management, co-investors, portfolio companies and family offices throughout the private equity life cycle. We represent clients through each stage, including:

We team with our national-level fund formation and governance professionals to offer comprehensive insight and experience, and we capitalize on the knowledge of our over 1,200 attorneys, consultants and professionals to deliver top-level value to clients.
